Thomas Campbell

916 Siena Dr.
Wake Forest, NC
27587

919.610.4182

thomasjaycampbell@gmail.com
https://www.linkedin.com/in/thomasjaycampbell/
https://github.com/thomasjaycampbell

Profile

Recent Web Development Boot Camp graduate seeking entry level position in web development / software development. Have a diverse background in management, banking, operations, and hardware.

Skills/ Certifications

MTA: Software Development Fundamentals Certification, MTA: HTML5 Application Development Fundamentals Certification, HTML5, CSS3, JavaScript, JQuery, SQL, C#

Experience

Web Development Boot Camp, Wake Tech; Raleigh, NC – 2018
Utilized HTML5, CSS3, JavaScript, and JQuery to develop optimized desktop, mobile, and responsive websites. Managed application life cycle. Learned fundamentals of object-oriented programming with C# and Java. Managed MySQL databases inquires and manipulation. Worked within IDEs Visual Studio and Android Studio.

Technical Operations Specialist, Etix; Henderson, NC – August 2017-Present
Set up and test all box office equipment used by our 1800+ clients in field. Manage tracking, organization and fulfillment of incoming equipment invoices and internal requests. Perform routine troubleshooting, maintenance and repairs for hardware and software.

Assistant Manager, Mini City Media; Raleigh, NC – March 2015-August 2017
Oversaw staff and operations for online book seller focusing on inventory management on eBay, Amazon, AbeBooks, and Alibris.

Teller, Regions Bank; Raleigh, NC – August 2013- March 2015

Intern, TriangleArtWorks; Raleigh, NC – 2011

Education

Wake Technical Community College; Raleigh, NC – Web Developer Coding Boot Camp, 2018
North Carolina State University; Raleigh, NC – BA in Communication, 2011
Wake Technical Community College; Raleigh, NC – AA, 2009